2013 New York Career Trek
November 20-22, 2013

Instructions and Important Information

- The GWSB Undergraduate New York Career Trek is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the School of Business unless otherwise authorized by the Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs.
- In addition to the written application, applicants must also submit a current resume to the F. David Fowler Career Center for review and approval in order to be considered for participation in the New York City Trek.

Instructions for resume submission:

1. Submit your current resume for review and approval in Microsoft Word Format to gwsbnyc@email.gwu.edu no later than Friday September 20, 2013 by 6:00pm. Subject line should read “Resume: New York Career Trek”.
2. Please note: Late submissions will not be critiqued or forwarded to employers.
3. You will receive an email from the F. David Fowler Career Center confirming your resume has been approved or will be contacted by the career consultant who reviewed your resume with suggestions to further enhance your resume.
4. FDFCC approved resumes will be forwarded to the Office of Undergraduate Programs and featured in the resume books for the employers.
 - Applicants must attend a group interview session on Monday, September 23, 2013 for Finance, Accounting, and Consulting treks OR Tuesday, September 24, 2013 for Marketing and Sports Management treks.
 - Mandatory prep sessions for the Trek will be held on Wednesday, November 13, 2013 at 7:00-9:00 PM and Thursday, November 14, 2013 at 6:00-8:00 PM. All Trek participants must attend sessions.
 - Trek participants must attend all company site visits, alumni breakfasts, and the alumni reception (No Exceptions!). This is an academic and career-focused program funded in part by GWSB; therefore, full participation is required.
 - Trek participants must ride the bus from the GW campus to New York and stay at the designated hotel. With advance notice, students are free to remain in New York following the conclusion of the final site visit.
 - All participants will be required to submit a participation agreement and liability waiver prior to departure.
 - All participants will exhibit professional behavior at all times during the Trek and abide by all policies of The George Washington University and laws of the city and state of New York.

- Selected participants are responsible for making arrangements with your professors regarding any class time or assignments that you may miss as a result of your participation in the Trek.
- Selected participants must pay a $250 registration fee to secure their spot. The registration fee is non-refundable and covers a portion of the participants' transportation and lodging for the Trek. The registration fee is due to the Office of Undergraduate Programs no later than Friday, October 18, 2013.
- Questions concerning travel, programming, or other Trek details should be directed to gwsbnyc@email.gwu.edu, questions about resume requirements can be sent to sbcareer@email.gwu.edu.
